

CONSENT

I authorize the Alberta Society of Professional Biologists (the "ASPB") to collect, use and disclose personal information that I supply, including photographs, videos, printed materials and other information related to biology in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act ("PIPA"), for the purposes of ASPB marketing, advertising, and promotion in electronic or hardcopy form, including photographs, newsletters, announcements, bulletins, advertisements, and videos that may be circulated publicly at events, via the ASPB's website or mailing list. I understand that I may revoke this consent by providing written notice to the ASPB. I understand the reasons for the collection, use and disclosure of this information and I confirm I am aware of the likely consequences of withdrawing or varying my consent.
